DISCLAIMER

Sessions will be recorded so I can analyze the testing data after.

Those sessions might also be analyzed later when I will pay for consultations from card game experts. If you prefer, I can mute your voice from those clips and replace them by subtitles.

Clips from sessions may be used in Rizontical Youtube videos, your username will be displayed but your voices will never be in any videos.

The tournament duels will be recorded and posted as livestreams and / or edited videos, your username will be displayed and your voices will be muted.

If sessions take longer than planned and it would mess with your schedule, some sessions can be done in multiple parts.

If at any point you want to quit the program please let me know as soon as possible. I got back up testers in case it would happen, no worries.
